Email address of the Owner: info@ondaverdeviaggi.it

Types of Data collected

Among the personal data collected by this web site either directly or through third parties, there are: Cookie; Usage Data, Name; Surname; Telephone Number; Company Name; Email; City.

Full details of each type of collected data are provided in the relative sectors of this privacy policy or through specific information texts shown before the collection of such data.

Personal data may be freely supplied by the users or, in the case of Usage data, collected automatically when the data subject uses this website.

Unless otherwise specified, all the data requested from this website are mandatory. If the user declines to communicate them, the website may be unable to supply the service requested.

In the cases in which this website indicate any data as optional, the users have the right to refrain to communicate such data, without jeopardy to the availability of this service or its operability.

Should data subject have any doubts on which data are mandatory, they should contact the data controller.

The eventual use of cookies – or other tracking tools – by this website or by the data controllers of the third party services used by this website, where not explicitly stated, is carried out with the aim of providing the service requested by the user, as well as other purposes described in this document and in the Cookie Policy, if available.

The User accepts full responsibility of the personal data of third parties obtained, published or shared through this website and confirms that he or she is authorized to communicate and disseminate them, releasing the Data Controller of any third party liability.

Method and place of data processing

Processing method

The data controller adopts adequate technical security measures aimed at preventing the access, dissemination, alteration or unauthorized destruction of the Personal Data.

Data processing is carried out using It and/or telematic tools following organizational procedures and methods strictly related to the purposes indicated.

In some cases, other persons charged with data processing may also have access to the data as well as the Controller. These include persons involved in the organization of the website (administrative, commercial, marketing, legal, system administrative personnel) or external third parties (third party technical services suppliers, mail carriers, hosting providers, IT companies, communication agencies) that, where necessary, are also appointed as Data Processors by the Data Controller.

The updated list of such persons may always be obtained from the Data Controller on Request.

The legal basis for processing

The Data Controller processes the Personal Data of data subjects under the following circumstances:

- the data subject has given his/her consent to one or more specific data processing purposes;

Note: in some jurisdictions the Data Controller may be authorized to process Personal Data without the consent of the Data Subject or other juridical base specified below, until when the Data Subject goes against ("opt-out") such processing. Anyway this is not applicable if the Processing of Personal Data is regulated by the European legislation in reference to the safeguard of Personal Data:

- processing is necessary in order to perform a contract with the data subject and/or comply with pre-contractual obligations;
- processing is necessary to comply with a legal obligation incumbent upon the Data Controller;
- processing is necessary to carry out a public interest duty or to exercise a public power entrusted to the Data Controller;
- processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the Data Controller or third parties.

In any event, the Data Controller may be requested to supply further clarification on the legal basis for any data processing, and in particular, to indicate whether the data processing in question is carried out pursuant to statutory requirements, contractual provisions or in order to enter into an agreement.

Data processing place

Personal Data are processed at the operational headquarters of the Data Controller and in any other location in which the parties involved in the processing are located. For further information, please contact the Data Controller.

The personal data may be transferred out of the country where the data subjects stay. For further information about the data processing place, the data subject may read the section about the details of the personal data processing.

The data subject has the right to obtain information about the juridical basis of the data transfer outside of the European Union or to an international organization based on international public law or composed by two or more countries, i.e. UN, or on the basis of the security measures adopted by the Data Controller to safeguard Data.

The Data Subject may verify if one of the transfer described above, reading the appropriate section of this document about the details of Personal Data Processing or requiring information to the Data Controller through the contacts listed above.

Period of storage

Personal data are processed and stored for the time necessary to fulfil the purposes for which they are collected

- Personal Data collected for purposes related to the performance of a contract between the Data Controller and the data subject shall be stored until said contract has been executed.
- Personal Data collected for purposes connected with the legitimate interest of the Data Controller shall be stored as long as needed to fulfil such purpose. The data subject may obtain further information regarding the legitimate interest of the Data Controller in the appropriate sections of this document, or by contacting the Data Controller.

If data processing is conducted with the consent of the data subject, the Data Controller may store the Personal Data until such consent is withdrawn. In addition, the Data Controller may be obliged to retain Personal Data for a longer period whenever this is necessary in order to perform a legal obligation or on the order of an authority.

On expiry of the storage period, the Personal Data shall be erased. It follows that all data subject rights to access, erasure, rectification and portability of data may no longer be enforced.

Personal data collection purpose

The Data of the User are collected to allow the Data Controller to provide its services, comply with legal obligations, answer to the requests or executive actions, safeguard their rights and interests (or the rights and interests of data subject or third parties), individualize malicious or fraudulent activities, and for the following purposes: statistical data collection, contacting data subjects, content on social networks or external platforms, payment management, registration and authentication, and address and email messages management.

Data subjects can find further detailed information on the purposes of processing and on the specific Personal Data used for each purpose in the appropriate section "Detailed information about Personal data processing".

Personal data processing details

Data subject rights

The data subjects may exercise any rights with reference to the data processed by the Data Controller.

In particular, the data subject has the right to:

- withdraw consent at any time. Data subjects may withdraw consent previously granted to process their Personal Data.
- object to the processing of their Personal Data Data subjects may object to their Personal Data being processed, when processing takes place on a legal basis other than consent. Further details on the right to object are given in the section below.
- obtain access to their Personal Data. Data subjects are entitled to obtain information on certain aspects of the processing of their Personal Data by the Data Controller, and to receive a copy of the processed data.
- verify and request rectification. Data subjects are entitled to verify the correctness of their Personal Data and request they be updated or corrected
- obtain restrict processing. When specific conditions occur, the Data Subject may request restriction of the processing of their Personal Data. In this case, the Data Controller shall process the data subject's data only for the specific purpose for which they are supplied, and shall not store the data subject's data.
- obtain the erasure and removal of their Personal Data. When specific conditions occur, the Data Subject may request the erasure of his/her Personal Data by the Data Controller.
- receive Personal Data or have them transferred to another Data Controller. Data subjects are entitled to receive their Personal Data in a commonly used structured format readable by an automatic device and, where technically feasible, obtain their transfer without impediment to another Data Controller. This disposition is applicable when data are processed with automated tools and the processing is based on the approval of the Data Subject, on a contract on which the Data Subject is party or on contractual measures associated to them.

- Lodge a complaint. Data subjects may lodge a complaint with the competent personal data protection supervisory authority or take legal action.

Details of the right to object

When Personal Data is processed in the public interest, in the exercise of public authority to which the Data Controller is invested or to pursue a legitimate interest of the Data Controller, the Data Subjects have the right to oppose the processing for reasons related to their particular situation. It is pointed out to the Data Subjects that, if their Data is processed for purposes of direct marketing, they can oppose the processing without providing any reasons. To know if the Data Controller processes data with purposes of direct marketing, the Data subject may refer to the appropriate section of this document.

How to exercise data-subject rights

Data Subjects can exercise their rights by addressing a request to the Data Controller, using the contact details present on this document. Requests are deposited free of charge and processed by the Data Controller as soon as possible, in any case, within one month.

Cookie Policy

This Website uses Cookies and other identifiers. For more information, the Data Subject should consult the Cookie Policy.

Further information on data processing

Legal action

The data subject's Personal Data may be used in a court of law or in the preparatory phase before eventual legal action as a means of defence against illegal use by the data subject of this website or of the allied services.

The data subject hereby confirms he/she is fully cognizant of the fact that the Data Controller may be obliged to reveal his/her Personal Data at the request of a public authority.

Specific note

At the request of the data subject, this website may, in addition to the information contained in this Privacy Policy, provide the data subject with additional pertinent information on specific services or on the collection and processing of Personal Data.

System logs and maintenance

This website and eventual third party services used by our website may, for operational and maintenance purposes, collect system logs, i.e. files that record interactions and may also contain Personal Data, such as the IP address of the data subject.

Information not contained in this Privacy Policy

Further information concerning the processing of Personal Data may be requested to the Data Controller at any time using the contact addresses.

“Do Not Track” requests

This website does not support “Do Not Track” requests.

To find out whether any of the third-party services support this function, data subjects are invited to consult the Privacy Policy of the services listed above.

Modification to this privacy policy

The Data Controller reserves the right to amend this Privacy Policy at any time, posting notification of any changes on this website, and also, where technically and legally feasible, notifying data subjects through one of the contact indications available to the Data Controller. Data subjects are therefore strongly recommended to check this page frequently, taking note of the date of the last modification listed at the bottom of the page.

Should the amendments impact any processing activities carried out only with data-subject consent, the Data Controller shall proceed to once more obtain, where necessary, the required consent from the data subject.
